Career history

Executive Assistant at BHF Prime Group Corporation

Feb 2026 - Present (3 months)

As an Executive Assistant at BHF Corp, I provided comprehensive administrative, operational, and financial support to the COO and senior management. I managed daily office operations, including handling incoming and outgoing documents, reviewing reports, coordinating with internal departments and branches, and serving as a communication channel for personnel concerns and inquiries.

I was responsible for monitoring and processing financial-related tasks such as tracking checks, reviewing SOAs, coordinating with the Accounting and Treasury departments, and assisting in payroll preparation, including salary computation, deductions, and documentation for staff and drivers. I ensured accuracy and proper documentation for approvals and disbursements.

Additionally, I handled scheduling, call management, and visitor coordination, while maintaining organized filing systems for records and reports. I also monitored company premises and maintenance concerns, coordinated with relevant teams, and ensured compliance with office procedures.

On a regular basis, I tracked endorsements, monitored company assets (such as keys and appraising tools), and ensured proper documentation, release, and return processes. I also prepared and submitted daily and monthly reports, followed up on financial obligations, and supported special tasks assigned by senior management.

Social Media Manager at DDR-Union & SHCc

Nov 2025 - Present (6 months)

As social media manager, I'm responsible for the project's digital communication, public relation, and online presence.

Sales Manager at Nexistry Digital Solutions

Dec 2025 - Dec 2025 (1 month or less)

As a Sales Manager at Nexistry Digital Solutions, I was responsible for identifying and reaching out to potential clients across the Philippines and the United States. I conducted market research and client analysis to determine business needs and recommend suitable digital products and services. I proactively generated leads, developed client pipelines, and initiated contact through email outreach and phone calls.

I also handled the presentation and offering of digital solutions, ensuring that each proposal was tailored to meet the specific goals of the client. Through consistent communication and follow-ups, I built and maintained strong client relationships, contributing to business growth and client acquisition.
